Digitization is unstoppable. Home offices, mobile apps and online shopping are part of our everyday lives. We have the leading technologies for the global data flood of today and tomorrow. High-tech from the canton of Obwalden, Switzerland.

Our Wafer Production Engineering department for Micro Optics is looking for a specialist in wet chemistry for a newly created position as a leadership experienced Team Leader (m/f)

Your main tasks:
- Leading a team of engineers and technicians in the wet chemistry department.
- Drive the industrialization of new products
- Transfer of new processes into production
- Analyses and further development of processes
- Specification, evaluation, installation and qualification of new plants and equipment
- Ensuring 2nd level support in case of plant problems in production

Your profile:
- Degree in microtechnology, materials science, automation technology or mechanical engineering
- Several years of professional experience in the manufacturing industry in a similar position
- Proven expertise in MEMS manufacturing technologies, focus on wet chemistry
- Leadership experience
- German & English good mandatory
- High level of initiative, leadership, doer mentality

Do you share our enthusiasm for innovative and future-oriented technologies?

Ms. Iris Gisler, Manager Human Resources, is looking forward to receiving your complete application documents including letter of motivation, CV and references by e-mail: bewerbung@axetris.com.

You can find further interesting jobs at www.axetris.com