

Wired for the Future

The next wave of the digital revolution is in motion, driven by an insatiable demand for digital content, a surging reliance on telecommuting, and an ever-growing array of innovations. Reliable and scalable FTTH and 5G technologies are critical to meeting the needs of today and tomorrow.

At Ensure, we love what we do and the industry in which we work. We've been meeting the future head-on since 2001 alongside our parent company, HH Group and our corporate telecom siblings. With a massive commitment to R&D, we manufacture the highest-quality optical network components in our own facilities plus provide premium connectivity solutions that consistently exceed customer expectations.

We're ready for the future. Are you?

Advanced PLC Manufacturer

We're well-known in the marketplace for best-in-class design and manufacture of PLC splitters. We control the entire production chain in our own facilities, from beginning to end, starting with first-stage essential components all the way through to fully turnkey OEM solutions for clients desiring ready-to-ship products in custom-designed, branded packaging.

This is how we do it:

1 Communications start here

We invest substantial capital in specialized equipment to manufacture PLC wafers, chips, FA arrays and ceramic ferrules. We take great pride in the quality and precision of our components.

2 All steps under control

Our team oversees every step of the way in our high-capacity production facilities, with manufacturing procedures adjusted to the exact specifications of our clients.

3 Quality and finish assured

We base our processes on the strictest international quality standards, ensuring premium quality in every PLC splitter that rolls off the line.
